

We strive to keep these messages simple and anonymous so that the Lord is glorified and not the author ~ after all God is the true author of any work He inspires in His children. If you've ever had a loved one that suffered under an oppressive attack of the enemy against their Spirit causing depression, anxiety, Fear, Uncertainty and Doubt ~ You know the pain and feelings of helplessness these attacks can cause for everyone involved.

The following poem was written by a loving husband whose wife was under just such an attack by Satan. Many people prayed for this wonderful woman ~ whom we have come to know and love over the years as a woman of God. And at the height of her suffering God sent messengers in the form of neighbors to visit this very couple and the neighbor's visit inspired the husband to write these words of faith, hope, joy and comfort as he basked in...

The Beauty of the Lord's Garden

Journeying along life's roadway, looking here and there
 I took in nature's beauty, I saw a garden by the stair
 The flowers stood in all colors, blending almost as one
 The balance of their glory displayed; what the Lord, through His love had done
 The roses with their brilliance, against the color of the grass
 The splendor of the lilies, that I hoped would forever last
 The oak leaves spinning as they rustled in the wind
 Gave strength to God's promise, as I recalled it once again
 The time of their glory is short, as we measure things today
 But it gives a measure to life's time, as we journey on our way
 Once again I turned to the Garden's Beauty, where I just had been enthralled
 It wasn't flowers at all; but the love of God's people, all gathered as He had called
 Your hearts, hands, and deeds of kindness, how they blossomed everywhere
 You ARE the flowers of God's Beauty, as you shared your love and care

Philemon verse 4

 making mention of thee always in my prayers"*
