

Not One

Have you ever wondered where you fit in to the grand scheme of things? Maybe you were standing outside at night gazing at the countless stars in the sky and realized how small you felt in the "bigger picture". Maybe you were once serving in a role that seemed to give your life a sense of purpose and meaning but you have since changed roles causing you to ponder these things. Or maybe you just stop from time to time and ask yourself, "Who am I?" and "Why am I here?"

If you've ever wondered who you are or why you're here I have a message for you. You were created in secret in your mother's womb with unique gifts that no one else in the world possesses... no one. God carefully oversaw your development and you were delivered into this world with a purpose to fulfill God's plan for your life.

I don't know what your experiencing right now in life. Maybe you're struggling. Maybe your unhappy with the way things have turned out for you. Maybe you feel unfulfilled even though you're at the top of your game as far as worldly standards go.

Friends, I want to encourage you today to find a quiet place and seek respite in your creator. He cares for you and He is waiting for you to come to Him so that He may reveal His plans for you. He wants to prosper you and lift the burdens of your minds and hearts. If you haven't done so already ~ quiet your heart and in one sobering moment let go of your plans and turn to God for direction and guidance. And if you've already given yourself to Christ yet you're still feeling lost and out of sorts ~ recommit yourself to Him. He desires that not one of us should falter and perish.

The Lord is not slow in keeping his promise, as some understand slowness. He is patient with you, not wanting anyone to perish, but everyone to come to repentance. ~ 2 Peter 3 NIV

May we allow God to renew our hearts and minds so that we may fulfill our purpose through Him!
